

What if Story is the Answer?

To our crisis of meaning and belonging. To our impulse to heal our lives and help others. To our desire to leave the world better than we found it.

It's one of the oldest and most powerful technologies we have available to us. Unfortunately, because no one has taught us how to use it to learn, to teach, to heal, or to catalyze change or create impact, we unconsciously consume it.

We unwittingly let it shape us and our children, instead of using it intentionally to (re)shape our personal and collective story.

I came to Amanda's event to be inspired, and I left transformed.

BOOK AMANDA TO ILLUMINATE AND EMPOWER YOUR AUDIENCE

With more than two decades of partnering with people to rewrite personal and collective narratives as a friend, a mother, a teacher, a facilitator, a storyteller, a brand and content strategist, and a messenger guide, Amanda empowers audiences that are ready to stop the st*ry loops and start co-authoring a truer story for themselves, their loved ones, and the world.

Whether it is a thirty-minute keynote or a multi-hour workshop, her unapologetically-honest, story-driven approach awakens individuals to the st*ries that hold them back and equips them with the tools to begin taking more control of the narrative.

INVITE AARON JOHNSON TOO!

As her son, co-author of A Religion of Story, and business partner in Saved By Story Publishing, Aaron Johnson offers a powerful perspective to keynotes and workshops.

Creatives, Coaches, and CEOs will be wowed by his wizard-like wisdom wrapped in wit as he shares how interacting mindfully with Story shaped his worldview and developed the skills he's needed to create a meaningful life, step into leadership at such a young age, and powerfully support other storytellers navigating the messenger and entrepreneur journeys.

WORKSHOPS

SAY. "GOODBYE. WRITER'S BLOCK. HELLO. MESSENGER MAP."

Like most of our favorite heroes, the first time an aspiring messenger undertakes the creative journey, they often end up facing unexpected and inexplicable drama, detours, and the proverbial dark forests. In this workshop, we explore the path from Inspiration to Impact as well as the unconscious and dangerous shortcuts that tempt us at every stage of doing our part to save the world.

WAKE UP FROM THE MESSENGER MATRIX

Our industry has perhaps unintentionally subscribed most of us to The Messenger Matrix—an illusory change-making world in which we follow all of the formulas and wonder why they are not delivering the freedom, meaning, and results that inspired us. In this workshop, we expose the glitches in this matrix and learn how to save the world without sacrificing our sanity or our soul.

REWRITE CULTURAL STORIES AND SOCIAL CONTRACTS

We see the broken systems and we have a solution; but we struggle, we overwork, and we wonder if we were crazy to think we could even make a dent. In this workshop, we uncover and begin to rewrite the unconscious contracts we have made—with ourselves, others, and Life Itself—that keep us individually and collectively stuck in disempowering narratives.
